The Wing Eating Contest first place prizes will be awarded upon the determination that one of the competition contestants and teams has successfully consumed the most chicken wings in weight within the allotted time period.

All prizes or prize will be distributed at the event. Contest prizes are not transferable. Prizes may not be substituted. No cash value.

See Addendum for more information on Prizes.

Selection of Winners

Selection of participants, decisions regarding the number of participants, determination of winners and all other decisions of Carolina Ale House management with respect to the contest are final.

Contest Rules

All plates will be weighed before given to competitors by a Carolina Ale House official. Each contestant will be given 2lbs of wings and will have 5 minutes to consume the most wings.

Prior to the start of the competition, contestants will witness a demonstration of the minimum amount of meat that must be eaten on a wing in order for it to be validly counted in the final tally. Contestants who do not meet the minimum requirement will be given one warning, after which they will be penalized for each wing that is not properly and fully eaten. Carolina Ale House Management will have the final determination on the number of penalty points (wings) to be assessed.

Chicken meat must be eaten directly from the bones. Stripping the bones of meat first and eating the meat at one time will not be allowed. Napkins in any form are not allowed. If a contestant leaves the wing-eating area for any reason during the contest, or eats any wings between periods, he or she will be immediately disqualified from further competition.

Competitors may not make physical contact with other contestants at any time. Any contestant who deliberately makes contact with another contestant will be disqualified at the sole discretion of Carolina Ale House. If a contestant purges or vomits at any point during the competition, he will immediately be disqualified.
